

We recognise the fact that some clients do need us to act on instructions given by parties other than themselves and completion of this form will enable us to do so. However, you should carefully consider the consequences of providing any other person with authority to administer your financial affairs and we recommend that you consult your legal adviser if you have any doubts about doing so.

To: Ashburton (Jersey) Limited

Client Number:

You are hereby authorised to accept instructions on my/our account from the person(s) detailed in the following Third Party Mandate. This authority is to remain in force until rescinded by me/us in writing.

Instructions may include, but are not limited to, the selling, converting, transferring or purchasing of additional shares in my/our own name(s). This authority shall include Application Forms signed by the Third Party Mandate for new investments. I/We understand that the sale of shares could result in funds being remitted to an account other than in my/our own name(s).

In consideration for you acting from time to time upon instructions signed by the specified Third Parties, I/we hereby agree to indemnify and hold you harmless in respect of all claims, actions, damages, proceedings, costs and expenses suffered or incurred by you as a result, direct or otherwise, of you acting upon such request.
